12th Avenue Bridge Replacement Project

The New 12th Avenue Bridge is a precast concrete bridge with piers that measures 102.4-feet long, 37-foot-8-inches wide consisting of two 14-foot lanes and a 5-foot pedestrian walkway. The new bridge has a load rating sufficient for school buses and firetrucks which was a significant issue with the old bridge.

The significant issues with the bridge placed the project on a priority level. The Engineering Department researched and sought out funding through Federal Grants to bring this project to fruition.

The total cost of the new bridge was $1,035,000. The city received $828,000 in grant funds for the project with the city paying the remaining costs of $207,000.

City Infrastructure Projects

COMPLETED

10th Avenue Bridge Replacement Project

The 10th Avenue Bridge had many of the same transportation issues as the old 12th Avenue Bridge. Both bridges have been a concern of the city for nearly three decades.

The Phenix City Engineering Department worked with the Alabama Department of Transportation to bring this project into being. This bridge replacement project, like the 12th Avenue Bridge Replacement Project, was also funded through grants secured by the Phenix City Engineering Department.

Total construction cost for the 10th Avenue Bridge was $1,186,870; of those funds $941,512 were federal grant dollars with the city responsible for $245,358.
